

All Voices Count

Everyone has a voice,
even if it's small.
Everyone has a choice,
even if it falls.

No matter how small you are,
your voice can be bigger.
You need to shine like a star,
and then your voice will trigger.

You need to know you have a voice,
even if you can't find it.
No matter what, just keep searching,
Then eventually you will hear it.

It's not just you who has a voice,
everyone else does too.
If your friends don't know that,
then tell them that they do.

When you tell them,
they'll be stronger too.
And when they are you will realise,
It's all because of you.

Your voice is big, bigger than big,
so when you need to shout.
Get out there and say what you say,
then know that your voice COUNTS!
