

Friendship

In the playground where we laugh and run,
Friendship is the best, it's so fun!
We share our secrets, snacks and games,
Together we're silly, still no one's ever the same.

When you're feeling sad, you know just what to do,
A hug and smile, I'm happier with you.
With friends by my side, I feel more alive
Like we could do anything together, because we always thrive.

At sleepovers we giggle, and play games all night,
With pillow forts, everything feels right.
We tell each other spooky stories, it goes on and on,
With every adventure at hand, all worries are gone.

If we didn't have friends, what would we do?
We would be at a stage of who, what or where,
A stage of confuzzledness because you didn't know who to play with.

No one wants to be in a place of confuzzledness,
So this is why we need to say thank you to our friends,
'Cause you'll never find one like them again.
